Objectives
Knowledge and comprehension of the main topics of teaching/learning mathematics and main theoretical frameworks of research in mathematics education.

Resources
The main resource is the attendance of the course, during which the main themes will be developed also through exercises and laboratorial activities. Some on-line teaching material will be provided together with research papers.

Exams
The final test will be an oral exam together with a didactic project, chosen and designed by the student.

Program