

Title of communication, titles not fitting in one line will break automatically

First Author<sup>1</sup>, Second Author<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Department, University, City, Country

<sup>2</sup>Other Institute, City, Country

If you want to add some references, insert single citations as [1] or Author [2]; multiple citations as [2, 3]. Text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract. Use off-text formulae if needed

$$\nabla \cdot \mathbf{v} = 0 \tag{1}$$

Reference them as in Eq.(1). Text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract.

Use empty lines to separate paragraphs. Text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract, text of the abstract.

See latex source for details.

- [1] Bookauthor A. B.: Book title book title book title. Book publisher, Publisher address (Year)
- [2] Firstauthor J. K., Secondauthor B., Thirdauthor C.: Article title Article title Article title. Rev. Mat. 99 n.9, 100–110 (Year)
- [3] Author D.: Article title Article title Article title. Appl. Mat. Rev. 99, 200–210 (Year)